The Beautiful and the Sublime: An Analysis of These Emotions and a Determination of the Objectivity of Beauty

By John Steinfart Kedney

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It is by no means a common fault that the very deliberation with which a book is prepared should be carried to the extent of actually lessening the effectiveness of the work as a whole. And yet we can scarcely doubt that such is the case with the book before us. The author seems to have so long entertained and so frequently revolved in his own mind the thought here presented, that its very familiarity to him has led him to presume too far upon the ease with which it is to be seized by other minds. We believe this to be the explanation of the extreme condensation of statement bordering more than once upon obscurity, for which the work is remarkable. Nevertheless, few books of the time contain thought that will so well compensate the earnest student for the trouble of overcoming such difficulties of style as are here found. We will attempt to indicate as briefly as possible the fundamental conceptions of the work. The author recognizes the necessity of setting out from presuppositions. And yet...
