These documents contain all the orders or instructions to any military, naval, or other officer of the Government, in relation to the establishment or organization of civil government in any portion of the territory of Mexico which has or might be taken possession of by the Army or Navy of the United States. These orders and instructions were given to regulate the exercise of the rights of a belligerent, engaged in actual war. over such portions of the territory of our enemy as, by military conquest might be taken possession of and be occupied by our armed forces - rights necessarily resulting from a state of war and clearly recognized by the laws of nations. This was all the authority which could be delegated to our military and naval commanders, and its exercise was indispensable to the secure occupation and possession of territory of the enemy which might be conquered. The regulations authorized were temporary, and dependant on the rights acquired by conquest. They were authorized as belligerent rights, and were to be carried into effect by military or naval officers....
