CHAPTER IV GOVERNOR MILLIKENS PROGRAM AND ITS ACCEPTANCE First Steps The 1916 elections in Maine went overwhelmingly Republican, making Carl E. Milliken of Island Falls, Governor-Elect, and giving the Republicans 28 out of 31 senators and 105 out of 151 representatives. During the political campaign, little attention was paid to the operation of budget procedure. Governor-elect Milliken favored some real reform in the methods of financial legislation but he did not emphasize this in the campaign as he felt that the people did not understand enough about the subject to be interested. 1 They were far more concerned about the enforcement of the prohibition laws, --the big issue in the campaign. Governor-elect Milliken was graduated from Bates in 1897, later took graduate work at Harvard and had had almost twenty years experience in the lumber (business. His training was not confined to the academic and business world, for in 1904 he entered officially on his career in state politics, being elected to the house, to which he was returned in 1906. Aroostook county then gave him three successive terms in the senate, of which he was elected president in 1913, at the age of 35. 2 The Governor-elect considered it his duty to rule as well as reign, but his rule was not to be of the mailed fist order. It was to be based on the principle of co-operation and consultation with the legislative leaders and this principle began to operate long before the...
