Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Proposed Disestablishment of Protestantism in Ireland: In Its Bearings Upon the Religion and Liberties of the Empire The following speech was delivered in the Commission of the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, on the 17th of June 1868, the day appointed for the discussion of the present proposals in Parliament in regard to Irish Protestantism. It was taken down in short-hand by a first-class reporter, and it appears revised in its present form at the request of many friends. The vast importance of the subject to which it relates can scarcely be over-estimated, and although a singular amount of delusion is abroad in regard to it, it is hoped that wiser counsels may yet prevail. That any one who, having read history, has travelled over Ireland, and had an opportunity of comparing that fertile but unhappy country with other lands, can have any serious doubt as to the leading cause of its social degradation, seems incredible. Other causes, no doubt, there are, but let any one compare Belfast with Galway, Protestant...
