Mr. Howard has a very intense nature. He thinks deeply, he feels deeply, and he acts in proportion. When he goes in for a thing, he goes, as the good dog Rover did, all over. There isn't a better fellow to camp out with. He can put up a tent in half the time another would pull it down. He can cut wood for the camp fire in such approved style that one feels inclined to let him do it all himself. At frying trout he can beat Delmonico. Mr. Howard is a reader and a lover of books. His private library cannot be beaten, for its size, in selection and binding, by any library in Duluth. ANTON SCHROEDER, Inventor and Manufacturer, St. Paul, Minn. Brain fever caused the deafness of the above young man when he was...
