Excerpt: . . . 11 The prepared statement of Mr. Ehlers follows: P S R V J. EHLERS REPAED TATEMENT OF EPRESENTATIVE ERNON I am pleased that todays hearing will explore how energy-related policies are being shaped by social science research. I understand that it is very challenging to determine why people do what they do regarding energy, given all the variables in their lives. If Congress creates what looks like good policy, but which lacks an un-derstanding of the primary drivers of decision-making, our policies may still fail. We must account for social factors when crafting energy policies. Much of the basic research funded by the National Science Foundation (NSF) ex-amines the fundamental mysteries behind brain cognition and human behavior. Among other things, NSF studies the causes and consequences of social and cultural norms. I know many of my colleagues...
