Excerpt: . . . 11 here, in the 108th, we have given them enough time I mean, the idea that home-based health services, while being seen as the new wave of the future and as being seen of cost-effective and certainly more healthy for the patient, they can be at home, with their fami-lies, staying at their homes and loved ones, certainly, I can see all the benefits of it, but have we honestly given them enough time to institute six - and I am not looking to create - excuse this one, be-cause I am going to wack them in a minute, but have we given them enough time in your thoughts Ms. B. Yes, we have, but let me clarify for the record ASCETTA that the three new services that they implemented to comply with the Millennium Act were adult day health care, geriatric evalua-tion and home-based respite care. The other services were already being provided. ENZI Mr. R. Thank you. I didnt realize that. ASCETTA Ms. B. The law was passed in 1999. It took almost two years to issue implementing regulations, and it has taken even longer for us to see any improvement, and we havent seen much in the availability of the three additional services. ENZI Mr. R. So in your opinion, the three additional services, we have had enough time ASCETTA Ms. B. Yes. ENZI Mr. R. Your report is interesting when it talks about many facilities restrict...
